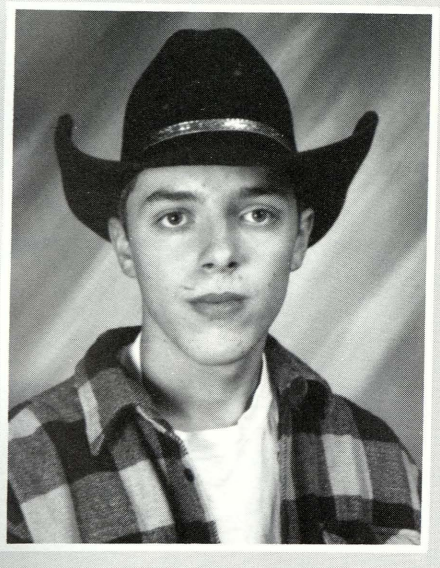
Saying Goodbye



As years pass we all begin and end chapters in our lives. We gain new experiences and make friendships that will last us a lifetime.

This past fall the staff and student body at Swan Valley had to say goodbye to a friend. Christopher John Kloha was known by all of us and was a very special person to many. For those who knew Chris and his love for the radio and country music, the memory of him will stay with us all as we begin new chapters in our lives.

As we come to the end of another year we will all be moving on to new things in our lives. Some will be finishing school, some working, and some starting families of their own. We need to recognize the importance of looking ahead to our futures, yet not losing the benefits of the experiences and friendships of our past.

As our memories of the past grow distant with the years to come, we will all remember Chris fondly and wish his family well.

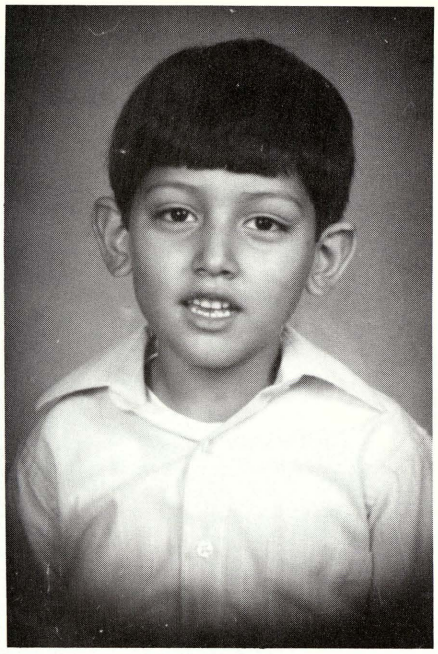
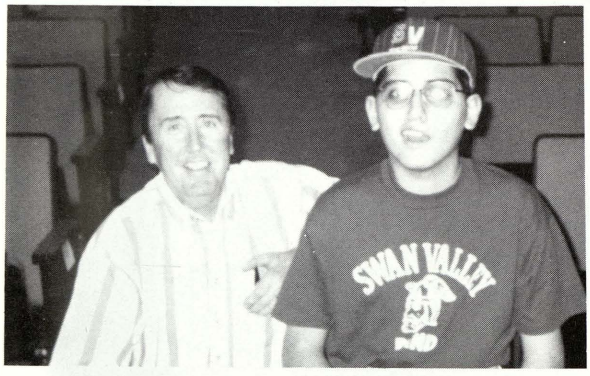
Clemente's basketball picture 1996.



Clemente in first grade.

Clemente's band picture 94-95.



Mr. Michelson says hello to Clemente.

The band surrounds Clemente with smiles.

During the winter of 1996 Clemente Maldonaldo had a serious accident which resulted in his absence from school for the remainder of the year. For what seemed like months we waited for his condition to improve and at the end of the school year, we were told he may return to SVHS as early as the fall of 1996.

Clemente has been a very serious and dedicated freshman basketball player and is also very active at The Latin American Assembly of God. Clemente is working very hard at recovering, the students and staff at Swan Valley wish him and his family well and look forward to his return.

S.V.T.V.

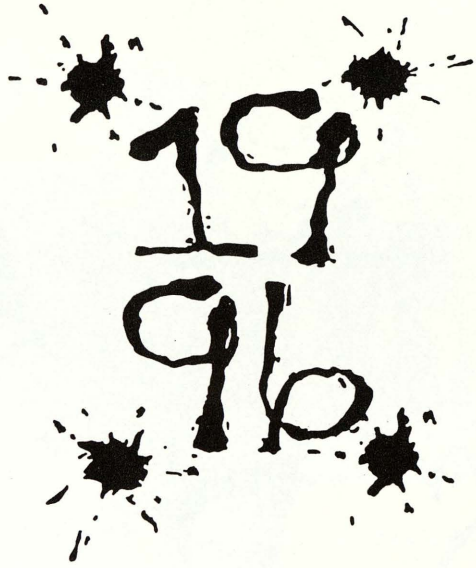
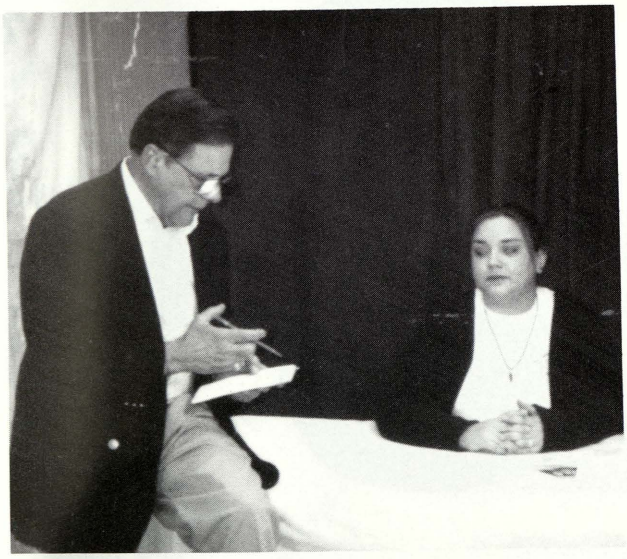
S.V.T.V. is #1 says Aaron.





Kelley thinks, "I'll have Dick's job someday."

Kelley helps B.J. through his rough times as S.V.T.V. host.

In their junior year, two students, Aaron Haefele and B.J. Furlo had an idea to start a school/community awareness program. With the help of Student Council Advisor Mrs. Debozy, the students made their vision a reality by attaining a grant from Saginaw Youth Force. The grant helped them purchase the necessary equipment for the production.

S.V.T.V. consisted of coverage of school events, humorous looks at sports highlights, and issues throughout the community of interest to teens such as poverty, tattooing, piercing, and suggestions for Spring Break fun.

The S.V.T.V. crew also produced videos for the Homecoming and Coming Home courts and assembled the senior video. With the help and support of Principal Rutledge and Vice Principal McRae, S.V.T.V. was made a class that students could receive credit for.

Overall, the show proved a positive addition to Swan Valley High School.

The team portrays a little humor out on the course.

Matt Napolitano, deep in thought.

Victory is the word to think of when hearing the Varsity Golf team mentioned. The 95-96 golf team had it's best year ever in Swan Valley history! The team was the first ever to go undefeated. The team took 1st at the Garber Invitational, 2nd in county, and tied for 1st with St. Charles in the Tri-Valley west championship. Doug Meyer made 1st team all-conference, Pat McCarthy made 2nd team all-conference, and Jim Henris received an honorable mention.

Mr. Reeder, Varsity golf coach, said he felt this team's season was exceptional and that he believed the 96-97 season would be as well.

Swan Valley can always depend on their cross country team to strive for the best. This year the cross country team had another outstanding season.

There were a lot of personal achievements made by all of the team members. Jenny Speer and Ashlee Dean reached States this year. Both girls were exceptional through a snow filled day. Jenny placed 18th and Ashlee placed 40th. Jenny Speer described cross country as, "hard work, but fun." She says that in the long run the hard work pays off.

Freshmen/JV Basketball

This year's Freshman Girls basketball team had an excellent start. They worked together and played strongly to finish the season 14 and 4. A great effort was shown by all the players. Rookie Coach Dawson said the season became difficult when Mr. Monahan's Junior Varsity team stole a few his players leaving his team short handed. His remaining players stepped up and filled the spots with ease ending in a very successful season.

"Energetic" is the word to describe this year's J.V. basketball team. Mr. Monahan described them as "a lot of fun."

The team's record was 7-7. They placed third in their conference. Throughout the season, they showed a lot of improvement. Their strong points were their aggressive post players and their overall effort.

This is the second year Mr. Monahan coached these players. He described them as "very hyper." They always kept the game in persepective and were always there cheering for each other.

Varsity Girls Basketball

In the beginning of the 1995 school year most of us were not even thinking about sports, but the girls Varsity basketball team was. This team, led by captains Jennifer O'Toole, Kristin Tack, and Sarah Matuzak, went on to become district champs.

There were 7 records broken this year. They were: most points by a team (81); most points by an individual (26) by Kristin Tack; most assists (78) by Stacey Hughes; most blocks in a season (40) by Stacey Premo; most blocks in a game (7) by Stacey Premo and most wins in a season (18). Good job, Lady Vikes!!

Hard work and perserverence along with diligence and dedication helped the 95-96 Varsity Football team to finish the season with a good record. The players were always encouraged to put forth their best efforts by bleachers full of spectators and by the cheerleaders constant positive enthusiasm at every game. They displayed their Viking spirit and consistently gave all they had to give making the school proud. When difficult moments surfaced in the game, the guys pulled their weight and revealed their cunning strategy during times of stress. The Varsity team played their hardest and proved again that Swan Valley High School students support the achievements the school has won.

From the beginning, Swan Valley's 1995-96 Freshman Football team displayed a desire to learn and grow as a group. They scored a win against Birch Run in the first game of the season and continued to play hard for the duration of the year. However, the season didn't pass without a few surprises.

According to Coach Adams, the team won some games they could have easily lost and lost some games that they thought they could win. The unexpected wins and losses put an interesting twist on the season nevertheless, and pushed the team to meet their challenges head on.

Their successful participation as a team demonstrated an abundance of skills that could be put to good use if they become members of the J.V. team next year.

The 1996 Swan Valley Wrestling Team had a very trying year. They lost some teammates early in the season to injuries and for various other reasons. However, they stuck together as a team and made it through. Coach Whitney said that one of their greatest triumphs was the individual willingness to keep in good physical shape. Gary Miller, David Brown, and Sean Gilmore fought hard at the District and State matches.

The J.V. boys basketball team was 3rd in the conference with a record of 12-8. In an interview Mr. Monahan said, "The best play was when Matt Theisen was full of adrenalin and jumped above the rim for a rebound."

Paul Filary was the crowd favorite. Tony Curran was on a roll in one game with 5 pts. in a row. The guys were also fast. The goal of the year was to show the guys man to man defense and teamwork.

The leading scorer was Ric Moody. Their best experience was going to the Piston's game as a team. Overall, they had a great season and they played hard, but they had a lot of fun as well.

The 1995-96 Varsity Boys Basketball season went extremely well. "The guys developed into a closely knit group and the season became fun and exciting," said Coach Szafranski. The team accomplished their goal to become a good team by the end of the season. Coach Szafranski said his most memorable game was against 3rd place Freeland.

The Freshman Volleyball team worked very well together. They had a new challenge, a new role, and they did great on filling those roles.

They have had many memorable games but playing Heritage in tournaments was their most memorable.

Together the team had awesome passes, sets, and spikes but mostly they had great control on where they placed the ball. The team still needs work on staying aggressive when the matches are close or not.

The goals for the freshman were being undefeated, playing great in tournaments, and attaining a higher level of playing. They were all accomplished.

Overall the team did great. They went undefeated 15-0.

With eleven sophomores and two freshmen, the JV Volleyball team enjoyed a difficult season filled with fierce competition. The season was a constant process of growing up and figuring out goals.

Together, team members learned from each other through playing hard. The motto the team followed was, "Don't play easy, play hard." The team established and accomplished their own goals.

The 1995-1996 Varsity Volleyball team had a great season. In fact, they had the most successful season in Swan Valley volleyball history. In the regular season, they swept the TVC East, took the MLS tournament for the third year in a row, and ended the season by taking 1st in the conference tournament. Success in the post season play included knocking Nouvel and Birch Run off at districts, Cheboygan and Pinconning at the Regionals and Reed City in the Quarter Final. These victories placed the girls among the top four class B teams in the State. Great job!

Mr. Deiter's schedule was filled with Language Arts II and IV. Miss Swanton taught Language Arts IV and Spanish I. Mr. Blower taught government, economics, and showed his students the physical part of science. Mrs. Perez' technological teachings were in business applications and computer courses. These new faces deserve to be commended on the contributions they have made to our school.

Student Council tried something new and interesting this year. In November the Public Relations Committee sent twelve members of student council to the East Side Soup Kitchen of Saginaw. The group left school at nine in the morning and helped serve lunch and cleaned up for the next shift. The students also helped unload and put away supplies received by the kitchen that day.

"You should always appreciate the things you have," said Nicole Cross, a student that had helped. This experience helped the kids get a taste of the real world. Aaron Haefele and B.J. Furlo with the aid of Mrs. Debozy started what will hopefully become an annual tradition.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB MEMBERS

Written by: Kelly Stajdl

The 1995-96 International Club consisted of more than eighty students. In December, the group held a Christmas party including games, a pinata, and a variety of Mexican dishes. In February, a group of thirty-two members went on a ski trip to Nub's Knob in Harbor Springs, Michigan. In April, the group participated in a road rally where students were given clues to translate in order to arrive at various destinations. Overall, the members had a great year.

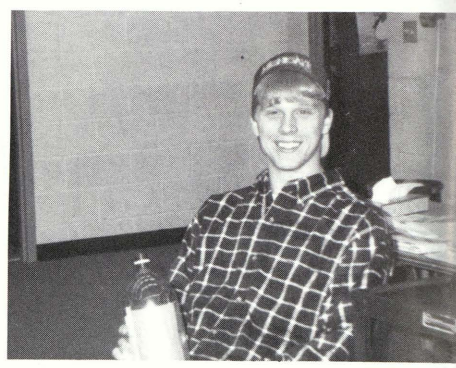
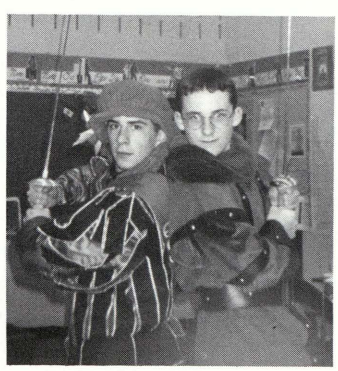
Cari and Nicole have a serious discussion.

Please let me go to the play.



Matt and his Mountain Dew ... they make perfect pair.



"13 Past Midnight"

Jenny O'Toole, Marcia Filary, Angelica Young, B.J. Furlo and Cari Miller show their great acting skills to their audience.

Brei Stoklosa, in character, hanging on Will Gast.

B.J. Furlo as the expressionless butler.

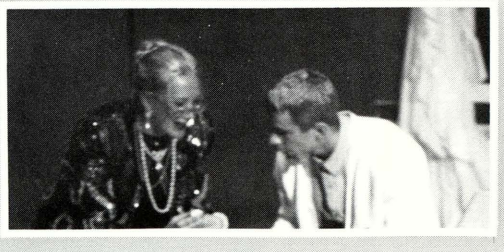
Sarah Pilkington uses her detective skills.

Dan Waltenberg sits in fear.

Angelica Young dances to "Macarana."

D.J. Sova and Matt Neagle spy from the door.

Script writer Jenny Sting acting innocent.



Jenny O'Toole shows Chad Arndt how to get the cap off a bottle of pills.

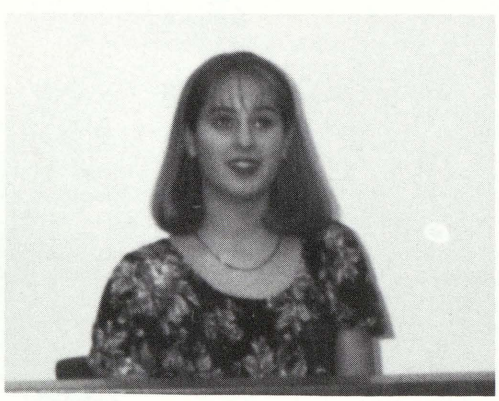
Law Day 1996

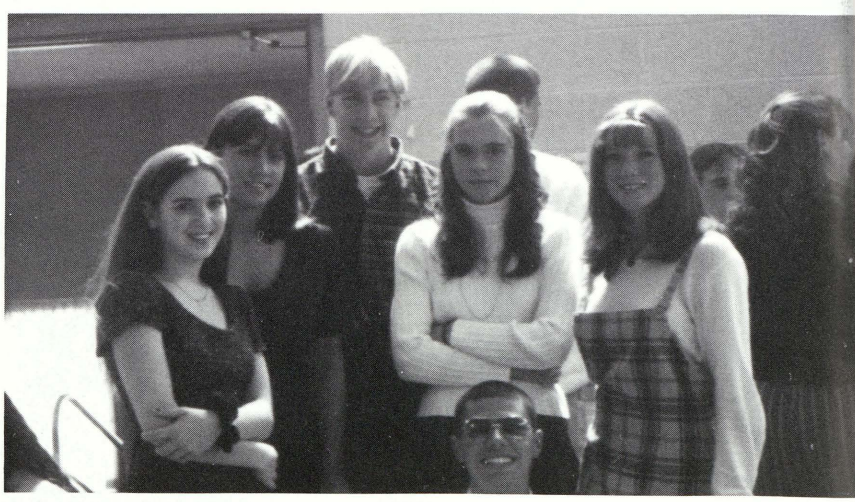
Kristen Stage is ready to protect and serve.

Amanda Schomaker, Jennifer Caterino, and Carly Furbush return from law day

Lawyer Paul Blower addresses the courtroom.

Sara Evans, Dan Florey, and Justin Comerford wait for a verdict.





Left: Sheila Hoppe says, "Like I said, I'm innocent!" Right: Some Swan Valley s

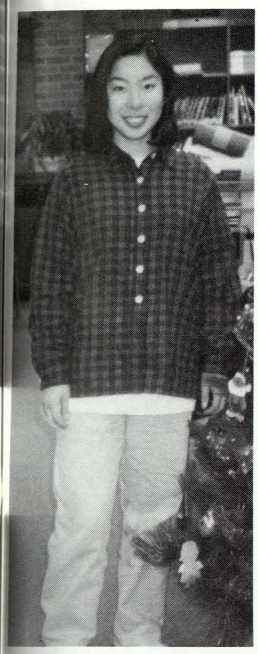
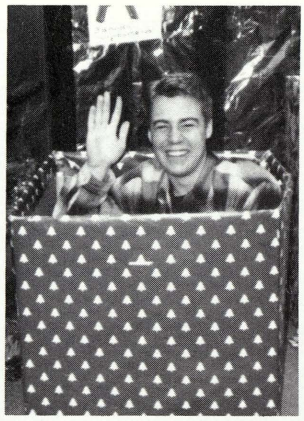
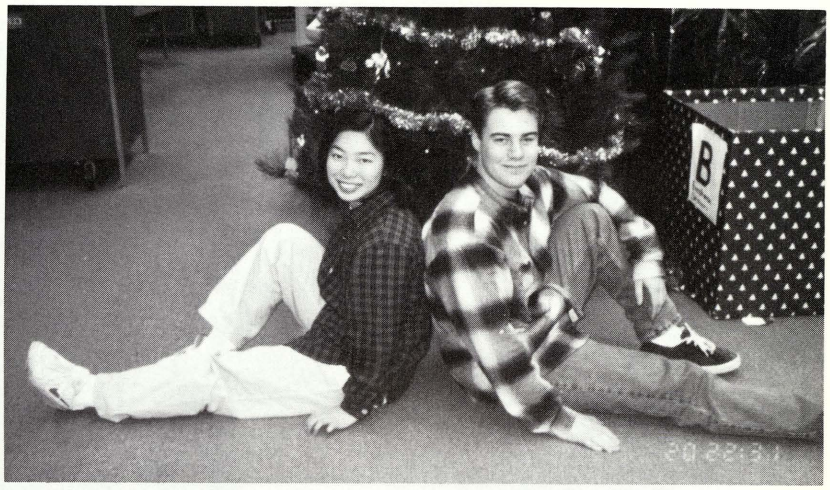
Exchange Students



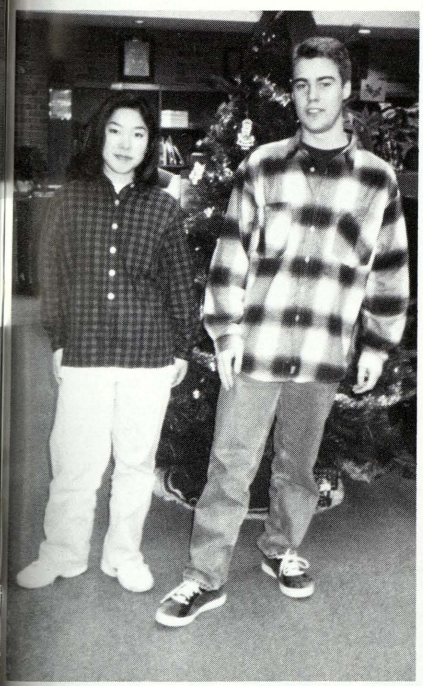
Yukki Nagakura shows that she's proud to be a Viking.



Martin Henkow tries to get sent home for the holidays.



Yukki Nagakura and Martin Henkow say united we sit ...



... Divided we stand.

Martin Henkow, our exchange student from Sweden said that what he likes most about our school are all the students that go here. Of the interesting experiences that Martin has encountered since he has been here, he says, is that people here seem more violent. Martin found Swan Valley and his school back home different in many ways. He said our school is, "strict and easy," and people are nicer here. Martin says being away from home and around a different culture has changed him. Going to school in Michigan has changed Martin's opinion of the United States schools. He says the schools are generally better in Sweden.

Yukki Nagakura, our other exchange student from Japan, says what she likes most about our school is the people and her friends. What she also likes about America is the parties. Yukki says being here has changed her by experiencing hard times and working through language differences. What she misses most from her school back home is her breaks and longer lunch times.

DARE TO BE different

Senior Trip

Yearbook Staff

"Where is everybody? Get to work! You look like penguins! Where is Nicole? And, where's Joe? Who has the camera? Don't forget the FOLIO TABS!!!"

There have been easy years to produce a Swan Valley Annual and there have been hard ones. This year's staff certainly has been one of the harder working groups. Their advertising sales overall were excellent. Layout and copy work is always a struggle, but this team pressed on despite the hurdles. We also owe an enormous debt of gratitude to Missy Pilkington who helped finish up this book after the end of the school year.

As a chronicle of the 1995-96 school year, this book holds memories of joy and fun, work and play, and sadness and pain.
